SMH Welcomes Baby New Year 2010

PLYMOUTH, N.H. --- Speare Memorial Hospital welcomed the first baby of 2010 at 8:14 a.m. on Friday, January 1. The arrival of baby girl, Renesmee Joan, was celebrated by her parents Melissa and Shaun Ivers of Thornton. Weighing seven pounds, 13 ounces and 20.5 inches long, Renesmee joins big sisters Jazmin, age six, and Katelyn, age three.

Melissa and Shaun were not expecting a new year's baby given a due date of January 5, but Renesmee had other plans. Her name comes from the Twilight series, and according to babynames.com is a combination of Renee and Esme meaning reborn and loved.

Speare Memorial Hospital is a 24-hour, acute care, non-profit community hospital and health care provider serving Plymouth and the communities of central New Hampshire for more than a century. Visit online at www.spearehospital.com and join us on Facebook.
