SMH Department of Anesthesia Welcomes New CRNA

PLYMOUTH, N.H. --- The Department of Anesthesia at Speare Memorial Hospital is pleased to welcome Terrance “Terry” Copsey, a certified nurse anesthetist. Copsey joins Anesthesiologist Dr. Timothy Lyons, and bring more than 30 years experience as a CRNA.

A member of the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists, Copsey received his bachelor’s of nursing from Andrews University in Berrien Springs, Mich., and his nurse anesthesia diploma from Pawtucket Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in Rhode Island. Most recently Copsey worked as an independent CRNA traveling the United States. Prior to that he worked for 15 years at The Memorial Hospital in North Conway, first as a staff CRNA then as chief CRNA. He has also previously worked at Speare as a per diem CRNA.

Speare Memorial Hospital is a 24-hour, acute care, non-profit community hospital and health care provider serving Plymouth and the communities of central New Hampshire for more than a century. Visit online at www.spearehospital.com and join us on Facebook.
